Take Final Exam Uninterrupted

Getting Started · https://servingalcohol.com/kb/start/final-exam/

In this article, we'll discuss why it's important to complete the Serving Alcohol final exam without interruption.

Serving Alcohol Final Exam

You must complete the final exam in one sitting, without looking back through the course for answers . You cannot leave the exam for more than 15 minutes between questions. You must start again if you look back over the course or pause for too long during the exam. After the last question, press the red button to process the test results. It will then show your final exam score. You must retake the final exam if you score less than the passing grade. For most states, you can retake the final exam as often as needed to pass and move forward.

States that do not allow unlimited exam attempts include California, Montana, Pennsylvania, Michigan , and Oregon.
